About Mercy Housing California

Mercy Housing California (MHC) is a California based, nonprofit housing development organization with the mission of creating and strengthening healthy communities. Mercy Housing has created and preserved affordable housing for Californians for over 40 years. Today MHC owns and manages 151 communities serving 19,600 residents.

MHC is an affiliate of Mercy Housing, Inc. (MHI), a national nonprofit housing development, management, and resident services organization founded by six congregations of Women Religious including the Daughters of Charity, the Sisters of Mercy, and the Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange.

MHC has been recognized for its outstanding design, quality management, and model of service provision by a wide range of public and private organizations, including the National Association of Home Builders, Affordable Housing Finance, and the American Institute of Architects.
